(ii) formulation of guidelines/ ,,jl—Tules for posting and transfer of teachers;

(iii) creation of machanism for verification of norms of behaviour expected of teachers;

(iv) establishment of a comprehensive, open, participatory and data based system of teacher evaluation;

(v) organising orientation course in the light of the National Policy on Education for elementary and secondary school teachers to improve teacher motivation;

(vi) In addition, various proposals for improving essential facilities arid providing support services in primary schools as well as for enforcing greater teacher accountability, are also expected to have a posUive influence in seeing that teachers devote proper attention to childrens' education.

Student teacher ratio

2413. SHRI S. S. AHLUWALIA: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state-—

(a) whether any ratio has been fixed by Government, in respect of students and teachers in Primary/ Middle/Higher Secondary schools in Delhi and if so, what is the ratio prescribed for Delhi/New Delhi.

(b) what is the ratio prescribed in other parts of the country, State as well as rural/urban areas-wise;

(c) whether the number of present sanctioned strength of teachers is much less than the ratio shown in the records of the Ministry; and

(d) if so, what steps Government have taken or proposes to take to bridge the visible gap?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI P. V NARASIMHA RAO): 00 According to Delhi Administration, no teacher-pupil ratio has been prescribed as such. Norms have however been prescribed for determining the number of teachers required in a school on the basis of subjects taught, number of periods to be assigned to a teacher, number of sections and section strength.

(b) According to Selected Educational Statistics 1984-85, the average teacher-pupil ratio in the Country as a whole as on 30. 9. 84 was as under:

Primary 1: 41

Middle 1: 36

High/Secondary... 1: 30

Higher Secondary Schools/Junior Colleges.... 1: 27

(c) and (d) No, Sir. Every year more posts of teachers are sanctioned on the basis of the norms.
